

Call for Volunteers: CAMRT Education Advisory Council (EAC)

CAMRT is seeking expressions of interest from a Dean of Health Sciences or senior academic leader (e.g., Associate Dean, Director of Education, or equivalent) to join the Education Advisory Council (EAC). Applicants do not need to be Medical Radiation Technologists (MRTs).

The EAC advises and supports CAMRT staff and the Board of Directors on current and future educational requirements essential for safe and effective practice in medical radiation technology. Members contribute strategic insight related to entry-to-practice education, credentialing and certification, continuing professional development, and conference and event education.

Preferred Experience

- Credentialing and/or certification processes
- Continuing education and professional development
- Academic leadership within health sciences or related disciplines

Meetings & Time Commitment

- One meeting per year required
- Up to two meetings per year
- Meetings may be held virtually/remote or face-to-face
- Ad hoc meetings and email-based collaboration may be required when specific projects are in progress

Term of Appointment

- Two years, renewable once

How to Apply

Interested individuals are invited to submit:

- A brief expression of interest outlining their role, experience, and interest in contributing to the EAC
